Foreign Teachers Of English Arrive As Guests Of Carmel

BY VALENTINE MILLER

"Carmel! The town with the unnamed streets, houses with no numbers, streets with no lights... The lights from the windows are the unique lighting for the streets. We discovered houses among the trees, with the prettiest gardens that a mind could imagine and create. It seems to me that I have had a beautiful dream or I have seen a candy or chocolate town. There are many reasons to think that Carmel is the home of the writer, the poet, the painter, and the scientist. I will never forget that lovely and picturesque scenery."

This was how Carmel impressed Zoila de Vazquez of Oruro, Bolivia, when she visited the Peninsula last fall with a group of 38 fellow teachers of English from 21 countries; under the local sponsorship of the World Affairs Council.

A similar group of international teachers arrived in Monterey this morning for three days of observing classes and teaching methods at the Army Language School, Carmel High School and Pacific Grove Junior High School; also sightseeing. While they are here, they will be the house guests of families in Carmel, Pebble Beach and Pacific Grove, and will be dinner guests tomorrow night in the homes of Pacific Grove school teachers.

The 26 teachers, representing Argentina, Austria, Bolivia, Brazil, Republic of China, Ecuador, El Salvador, Haiti, Japan, Malta, Mexico, Nicaragua, Panama, Paraguay, Turkey, and Uruguay, are among several groups who are in this country taking part in the international Teacher Development program. Nominated by the ministries of education in their own countries, they were selected by the United States Department of State, acting upon the recommendation of the Office of Education. One of the many cultural, educational and informational exchange programs operated by the U. S. Government, this program, during the past 10 years has brought more than 4,500 teachers and education officials from 83 countries to study in the United States.

The group visiting the Peninsula is living for three months in San Francisco, for the most part with interested American families, and attending San Francisco State College seminars which include linguistics, teaching methods, and American government, history, and literature. Similar groups are studying in other colleges and universities in the East and Middle West.

This semester of study at an assigned college is followed by a six-week period in which smaller groups are assigned to specific communities to observe American schools in operation. Living with American families and participating in the life of the community, sharing ideas, customs, history, culture, and educational affairs with their new friends, brings about, in the words of a visiting teacher from Japan in last year's group, "a common belief that by our individual efforts we can contribute to the achievement of world peace."

Carmelites who are taking the international teachers of English into their homes this week are Mrs. Helen E. Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bell, Mrs. Frank Carmody, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Elkinson, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Fletcher, Miss Edith Jamieson, Mr. and Mrs. D. MacMillan Kerr, Mrs. Walter Lehmann, Dr. and Mrs. Walter Roth, Mrs. W. E. Schenck, Mrs. Harry Steinberger and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Weston.

THE VOTER SUBSIDES

Brought to a steaming fury by habit, inflamed oratory, the irresponsible exhortations of radio, television and newspaper advertising; annoyed and baffled by measure as well as candidate; stimulated, toyed with, provoked and pampered into alternating passions of confidence, horror, eager joy, and dismay, the voter has once again deployed to the voting booth, indignantly wielded his rubber stamp, thumped out our incredible and illogical destiny, and returned, glowering, but feeling faintly righteous, to his parlor, the stockmarket, Saturday football, Jane Mansfield weeping on the Rome-London plane and a less-troubled concern about Cuba.

For we are still here today, no more irradiated than we were a month ago, still not crunched in a shelter, still in possession of our castles, our debts, our bad taste and our eventual hope of triumph.

Nobody can say what the consequences of our choices will be, except that some men will be in public office and others won't. For them, the consequences are quite apparent and undecipherable. But (Continued on Page Sixteen)

The Deadly Highway

And The Unsafe Driver Who Makes It So

A new look at the typical unsafe driver was taken by Dr. James L. Malfetti, executive officer of the Safety Research and Education Project of Columbia University Teacher's College, in his address to the American Automobile Association annual meeting in Detroit.

The Columbia project is financed in part by grants totaling $200,000 from the AAA Foundation for Traffic Safety.

"Our studies explode the picture of the bad driver which has come to be accepted as a stereotype — a reckless speedster, careening down the wrong side of the road. There are such drivers and they are bad drivers, but their actions do not represent the bulk of the bad driving with which we must contend if we are to reduce accidents," Dr. Malfetti said.

"The poor driver characteristically acts to impede traffic flow — blocking or driving slowly in the passing lane; changing speed and position without signalling; failing to permit another driver to enter the traffic stream. Interestingly enough, the slow driver, particularly the one who blocks the passing lane, is more of an irritant and hazard than the driver who exceeds the speed limit. However, the man who drives too fast for conditions, regardless of the posted speed limit, is roughly condemned."

Dr. Malfetti took vigorous issue with safety authorities who have long advocated "defensive driving" as the best way to prevent accidents. This philosophy calls for the driver to anticipate and be on guard against the mistakes the other driver is going to make.

"Defensive driving gives the unfortunate connotation that the other driver is inferior, or that he is 'out to get someone.' Furthermore, undue concentration on the other fellow's actions may well interfere with our own performance. Driving our own car is a complex enough task without trying to out-guess or outwit the drivers about us."

Recommending that drivers follow "the morality of the Golden Rule," Dr. Malfetti said: "Positioning one's car so as to prevent an accident to a following car unable to see a hazard, allowing another car to enter the stream of traffic in front of us, facilitating the flow of traffic at the sacrifice of our right-of-way — these are some of the ingredients of good driving."

The Safety Research and Education Project at Columbia University Teacher's College was established in 1957 through a $25,000 grant from the AAA Foundation for Traffic Safety. Since that time, the AAA Foundation has awarded grants totaling $200,000 to the project.

PET SKUNKS FORBIDDEN

Myron W. Husband, M.D., director of public health for Monterey County, has announced that a new state regulation, pertaining to skunks became effective 1 November, 1962. Designed to further protect the public from the danger of rabies, the new regulation prohibits the importation of skunks into or out of California. This in addition to the already existing law prohibiting the trapping or capture of skunks for pets or for sale. The transportation of skunks within the state is also prohibited.

Aside from the law, said Dr. Husband, anyone obtaining a pet skunk is flirting with real trouble. Baby skunks have been known to develop rabies 60 days after birth.

PARACHUTE JUMP

All Boy Scouts and anyone else interested in seeing a parachute jumping exhibition are invited by Carmel Explorer Scout Post 14 to come to the Carmel Junior High School campus on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Dick Enarson will be the jumper and tell those present about sky-diving. He will also show a film and answer questions about the sport, according to Dr. C. A. Broadus, adviser to the Carmel Explorers. His assistant is Ronald Heissman.

Officers of the Scout group for boys 14-18 years old are Don Smith, president; Don Blanks, vice president; Joe Anzini, treasurer; Bob Parkhurst, quartermaster; Richard Thiker and Doug Rodda, cabinet representatives; Peter Rand, activities chairman for December; Bill Wilson for January.

If the weather is unsuitable for the jump, the exhibition will be postponed until 24 November.

Where There's Life

By Andre Hope

Madame! Sir! Would you prefer the old-fashioned Thanksgiving dinner?

Oysters on the half shell or Consomme Bellevue.
Roast Turkey
Corn Bread, chestnut dressing
Whole cranberry sauce
Giblet gravy
Mashed Potatoes
*Lincoln Sweet Potatoes
*Mushroom creamed onions
Mince pie or *Mince cake
Sparkling Burgundy or Vin Rose
Dressing: A mixture of crumbled corn bread, crisply fried bulk sausage, lightly sauteed onions and celery, chestnuts (I use the canned ones), apples, thyme, sage (careful), marjoram and nutmeg. Moistened with melted butter and chicken broth or dry sherry, or a combination of both.

Lincoln Sweet Potatoes: Alternate layers of thinly sliced par-boiled yams or sweet potatoes and apples. Sprinkle each layer with brown sugar, cinnamon, ginger and dot with butter. Fill halfway with cider (and a jolt or two of rum or apple brandy if you choose). Cover and bake in a moderate oven. (Canned potatoes and apple sauce may be substituted, lazy!)

Mushroom creamed onions: Saute drained and rinsed small, canned, boiled onions in butter with a pinch of sugar. Pour over them a sauce made by combining sauteed canned or fresh sliced mushrooms with cream sauce or sauce made with mushroom soup thinned with cream; either flavored with sherry. Flavor with pepper and nutmeg. (May be browned lightly in oven.)

Mince Cake: Slice loaf pound cake to make three layers. Fill layers with mince meat. Frost with vanilla ice cream or spumoni, then freeze.

Perhaps you would prefer something more sophisticated which serves from two to 20 and does excellently for a buffet.

Hot Turtle Herder's Consomme (Turtle and beef consomme, 1/2 and 1/2, laced with sherry)

*Cucumber or Avocado Mousse or Tomato Aspic, caviar
Roast Cornish Game Hens with grapes

Wild rice and Toasted Almonds
*Artichoke Heart Melange
French Croissant or Butterflake Rolls

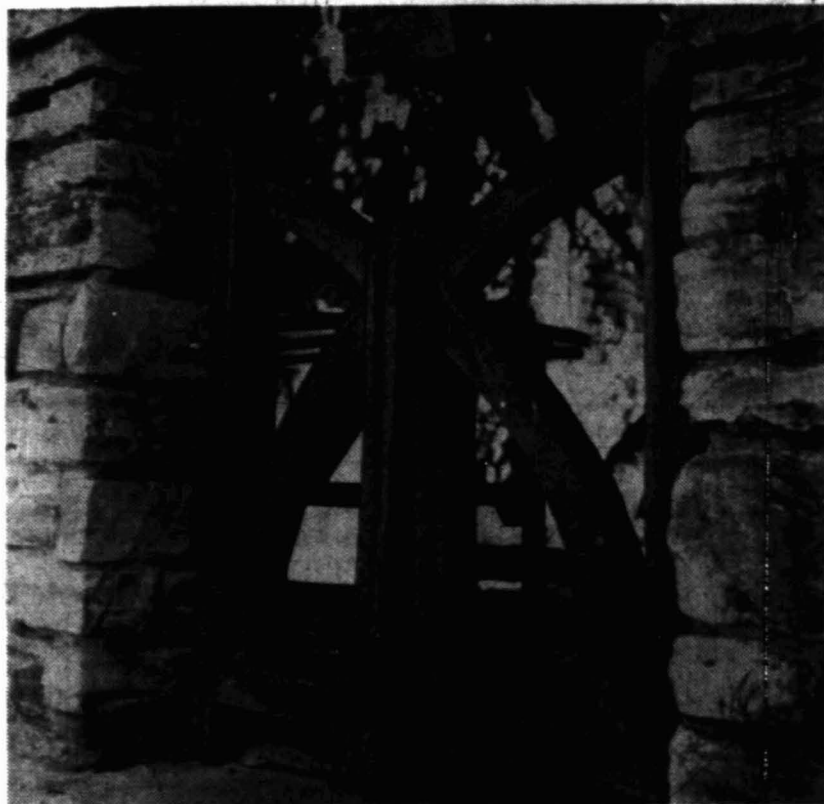

Currant Jelly
Chablis
Coffee and Cognac

Coffee ice cream, Baba au Rhum

*Mousse or aspic: Line bottom of fancy mold with caviar, or red caviar (lightly rinsed) or canned chopped olives. Adhere with a little clear lemon gelatine. Pour cooled mixture over. Chill. Serve garnished with lemon or lemon slices. Sour cream or mayonnaise on the side.

*Rock Cornish Game Hens: Stuff with sliced celery and whole grapes. Butter well. Cover breast of each with 1/2 strip bacon. Roast in 400 degree oven for 10 minutes. Add warmed mixture of 1/2 chicken stock, 1/2 port wine. Reduce heat to 350 degrees for 40 or 50 minutes. Baste frequently.

*Artichoke Heart Melange: Cook frozen artichoke hearts according to directions on package with half the amount of thinly sliced celery and some finely chopped green pepper. Drain. Add sliced black and green olives. Sprinkle with lemon

WHERE HAVE YOU SEEN IT? The Pine Cone commences this week to print a series of pictures of distinctive features of our environment. Occasionally natural, sometimes architectural, possibly even human on occasion, they will all be of special interest. A real Carmelite should be able to situate them at once. If you cannot, no matter how long you have lived here, you are guilty of looking without seeing.

Local Galleries

A champagne preview opened the current combined show of three Cannery Row galleries featuring the work of four artists.

The Sandpiper Galleries, 421 Cannery Row, is showing oils and watercolors by Jack Laycox. A native Californian, his subject matter includes San Francisco scenes and shorelines, landscapes and city views elsewhere in Northern California and the United States executed in brilliant color and powerful monochrome studies. He first studied with his grandfather, a California portrait painter, later combined engineering and art studies during World War II as a designer and technical illustrator for the Corps of Engineers' Manhattan Project. He has an art degree from San Francisco State College, subsequently was advertising manager and art director for a large firm which manufactured machinery. He has exhibited widely in the San Francisco area and his work may be seen at the current Society of Western Artists' show at the de Young Museum.

At the Mole Gallery, 425 Cannery Row, a local artist, Virginia Conroy, is exhibiting her work, including a five-foot by four-foot-eight-inch study, Thrust and Equation, based on the artist's pictorial concept of a religious impulse. She is the wife of Eldon Dedini, local cartoonist.

Gamble's Galleries, 428 Cannery Row, has the third show in the combined exhibition. Here are exhibited works by Jerry Edlund and John Broadhurst, Eastern and Midwestern painters who represent a new wave of pastoral expression.

Jerry Edlund attended Chicago Art Institute and during this period directed scene designing for the drama department at Northwest ern University and gained recognition with his Don Quixote sets.

John Broadhurst studied graphic arts and painting at Nebraska University on a scholarship and is finishing his art training at San Francisco State College.

Both young men had their first California showings in Beverly Hills at the Raymond Burr Galleries. Pastoral settings and images are included in their Cannery Row exhibit.

Craft Fair Exhibit

Stained glass, beach pebbles, driftwood, and ocean shells are the raw materials out of which two senior craftsmen, Mrs. Elizabeth Surdez and Mrs. Mary Reis, have created the original pieces which are on display at Craft Fair this week.

Mrs. Surdez used to spend time in Chartres and Notre Dame cathedrals when her husband was studying at the Sorbonne. She determined then to learn about stained glass, which she has done through the years, but only now with the incentive of being able to display her work for sale has she experimented using this material. The stained glass Christmas tree which is in the window at Craft Fair was awarded a prize at this summer's Monterey County Fair. This encouraged her to make stained glass hanging Christmas stars. Mrs. Surdez has always liked working with driftwood and mosaics, and some of her work in those media are included.

Mrs. Mary Reis, who also started as a driftwood sculptor, is now

AFA Shows Work Of Early Local Artists

A memorial exhibition of paintings by artists of the past, whose homes were on the Monterey Peninsula, is being shown at American Federation of Arts headquarters in Carmel. The exhibition, A Salute To The Past, opened this week and will be on display until 10 December.

Among the late artists whose work is in the exhibition are Lester Boronda, Kate Carewe, Ida Maynard Curtis, William Chase, Theodore Criley, Albert DeRome, Paul Dougherty, August Gay, Percy Gray, Armin Hansen, C. Chapel Judson, Mary Young-Hunter, Paul Mays, George Koch, Xavier Martinez, Francis McComas, Mary Miller, Jo Mora, M. DeNeale Morgan, Frank Myers, John O'Shea, Gotardo Piazzoni, Charles Rollo Peters, C. S. Price, Lee Randolph, Joseph Raphael, William Ritschel, William Silya, Florence True, Abel Warshawsky, William Watts, Paul Whitman, Stanley Wood and Sydney Yard.

The paintings have been loaned to AFA by their present owners, and may be seen at AFA headquarters on Lincoln south of Ocean from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. daily.

The hanging committee for the show are George Seideneck, Ruth Brady, Leonard Heller, Mrs. James T. Duke, and AFA president Mrs. Jess Braucht.

using other natural and local materials to make wall hangings—flying geese, fish, eagles—using beach pebbles and shells.

Both of these craftsmen are members of The Monterey Peninsula Senior Craftsmen, the organization sponsored by The Carmel Foundation to encourage continued creativity among its members.

White Oaks Presents Mimist Jack Cook

Mimist Jack Cook will make his only Peninsula appearance at White Oaks Theatre in Carmel Valley at 8:30 p.m. Saturday. The evening's program will be supplemented with dance selections by Gale Peterson and Maria Anderson.

Mr. Cook, presently an associate professor of drama at San Francisco State College, has presented television mime programs as well as concerts throughout the country. His theatrical career began at Pasadena Playhouse, where he later instructed. Moving into mime work he presented his first concert in 1949 at Carnegie Hall, and his intense interest in this unique theatre form has kept him actively performing ever since. However, the post-war years found him combining mime and theatre work while co-producing and directing with the National Repertory Theatre. He also found time to appear with Yul Brynner in Lute Song, and with Elizabeth Bergner in The Duchess of Malfi. Returning to the West Coast, he worked with such notables as Mary Martin in South Pacific, and Helen Hayes in What Every Woman Knows.

'One of the most interesting aspects of Mr. Cook's career centers around the summer of 1961 when the U.S. State Department sent him to Ethiopia as special consultant to the emperor on the development of the National Theatre of Ethiopia.

GREEK FOLK FESTIVAL

Second in the series of concerts presented by the Monterey Peninsula Concert Association will be Panhellenion — Folk Festival of Greece, Saturday evening, at 8:15 in the auditorium of the Pacific Grove Junior High School.

The company of 16 dancers and four musicians has traveled Europe with acclaim, and makes its first tour of the United States this season. Eleni Tsaouli, founder, director and choreographer of Panhellenion, has arranged a production to give the audience a panorama of Greek life and culture over a span of three millenniums.

Four musicians will provide musical accompaniment on native instruments, many of them as antique as the dances—the shepherd's pipe, drum, tambourine, cimbalon, mandolin, lute, violin, and goat-skin bagpipe.

Attendance is limited to members of the association, and members of other similar associations on a space available basis.

MARK SCHORER TO TALK

The last lecture in the Critique V series by Mark Schorer, chairman of the English department at the University of California and author of Sinclair Lewis: An American Life, will be tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock in the Monterey Peninsula College music hall.

Mr. Schorer will discuss Literary Confession.

Reservations Planned For MPC Lectures

Because lectures at Monterey Peninsula College have been regularly overflowing the Armory and other lecture halls on campus, a new reserved seat system has been formulated.

"The Peninsula's need for an appropriate auditorium was dramatically illustrated again at the Carl Sandburg lecture," MPC President Frederick R. Huber said in announcing the plan to take the place of the unsuccessful first-come-first-served system for seating audiences. Two weeks before the announced date of each major lecture, and until a week before it, persons requesting up to four tickets by mail will be sent them if they have enclosed stamped, self-addressed envelopes with their requests.

After an announced date, any remaining tickets will be made available in the MPC Administration Building. These may be picked up also with a four-ticket limit per person—at the student accounts' window until 4:30 p.m. and thereafter from the evening division secretary.

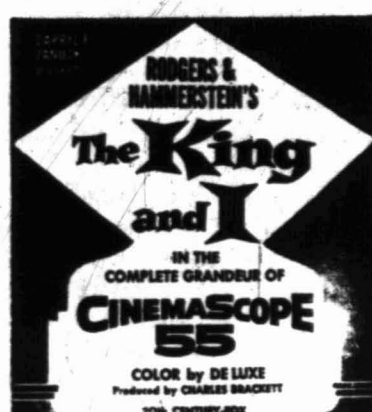

In the event that all reserved seat tickets are not picked up by the afternoon preceding the evening of a lecture, they will be taken to the Armory and given out to early arrivals as long as they last.

Persons without tickets will still be urged to hear the lectures through simultaneous broadcasting to the library, student union and music hall.

SLIDE LECTURE ON RUSSIA

Monterey Peninsula College faculty member Dr. Reuben Johnson will show slides and lecture on Russia in the music hall on campus Monday at 8 p.m.

New Cars, Miss BMC And Other Reflections

By Larry Rose

The British Motor Corporation's "Operation 850 Plus" at the San Carlos Ranch last Tuesday was like Bastille Day with slight overtones of the Cuban situation.

It was a $62,000 exclamation point intended to make the names MG and Austin once again a challenging factor in the automobile world. It did that, and, perhaps inadvertently, also scored in the entertainment world. It was about the greatest Roman circus I have ever seen, and I'm still not sure whether I will end up writing a road test or an opening night review.

I mean, it had chariot races, famous names, hot baked capon, Dungeness crab, spectacular martinis, Denise McCluggage, the new MGB and Miss BMC.

Let me tell you about Miss BMC. She wore a costume that was the Royal Canadian Mounted on top, and the Folies Bergeres on the bottom.

Now, there were the best sports car writers on the West Coast there. And top newspapermen. All

SIMPLY THE WORLD'S BEST. Standing l. to r. Kjell Qvale, president of British Motors of San Francisco, Juan Fangio, five times world champion, Denise McCluggage, Pedro Rodriguez, Innes Ireland, Ronnie Bucknam; front, Roger Ward, Jack Flaherty, Dan Gurney.

THE MGB AT SPEED. Rodriguez leading Fangio leading Ward. And so they went through the ten-lap event. Rodriguez won three of the four races, each in a different model, the MGB, the MG sedan, the Austin 850, and the Austin Cooper.

supposed to be knowledgeable, all supposedly keenly excited. And they were. But not about the cars. They kept leering at Miss BMC and saying things like "what a suspension!" and "when does the road test start?" to one another. And the photographers shot more footage of Miss BMC than of all the cars and other people combined. It was sort of silly. I think.

But not the demonstration on the track. Before perhaps five hundred people—it's a shame that five hundred thousand couldn't have seen it—some of the greatest drivers in the world put on some pretty hairy racing in the most interesting new vehicles to enter the market in perhaps ten years. Certainly I can say this for the MG sedan and the Austin 850. It has been so long since I have driven an MGA that I cannot make a valid comparison with the MGB. But there is nothing to compare with the hydroelastic suspension of the sedan, the incredible performance packed into the 1100cc engine, and the remarkable ride. Driven hard into wildly sliding dirt track corners, very little lean was apparent and—as Fangio casually remarked to me as I clung in terror to the seat while he drifted us through a mad dirt slide—there is very little pitch.

Speaking of that, I later had the same car out by myself, while Fangio drove another. Have you any idea what an awful and terrifying feeling it is to be sliding around a turn in a tremendous boiling of dust, and see out of the corner of your eye another car inches away, with Fangio at the wheel leering evilly at you? I promptly went into the pits and became violently ill.

But the premiere made its point. And if — a very big IF, we must stipulate—the Austin 850, the Austin Cooper, the MGB, and particularly the sedan, have comparable endurance and reliability, they are going to represent a major challenge to the venerable VW.

Going To The Dogs

Premium lists are now out for Del Monte Kennel Club's first winter all-breed dog show and obedience trials scheduled for 2 December at the Monterey County Fairgrounds.

Because of unpredictable weather this time of the year, the club has planned an indoor - outdoor show at the fairgrounds. If the weather is pleasant, most of the judging will be held outdoors. In case of rain, two large buildings offer ample indoor space for rings and exhibitions.

Premium lists are available at veterinarians and pet shops on the Monterey Peninsula or may be obtained from the show superintendent, Bernice Behrendt, 470 38th Avenue, San Francisco 21. Additional information may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Paul H. Combs, Jr., Via Contenta, Carmel Valley, or calling OL 9-2037.

National and international poodle aristocracy will vie for further honors Saturday at the fourth annual Speciality Show and Obedience Trials in the Community Hall, Fiesta and Fairgrounds in San Mateo, sponsored by Poodle Club of Central California.

Already recognized as one of the finest specialty shows in the country, the poodle show will be unbanned, with judging beginning at 11 a.m.

Sport Cars

By Ed Leslie

1963 Austin-Healey 3000. One of the world's favorite sports cars, has arrived on the Peninsula. The beautiful Healey still has its classic styling originated by Donald Healey of England in 1953 and sold to Austin for manufacture in 1954. Built as a 4 cyl. until the six was introduced in 1957, the body has undergone steady and careful improvement while retaining the lines we love, until today it is an honest convertible with roll up windows, much better for Carmel's cool damp evenings. The little seats behind the leather front seats are there for the kiddies and the locking trunk will hold enough for you to travel with, particularly if you learn to pack loosely to utilize all the space. There is still a small pocket in each door plus the shelf over the passengers' foot space.

Mechanically the Austin Healey has a rugged six cylinder engine developing 136 hp and getting it to the road through a 4-speed gear box that was new in 1962. Most Healeys have the overdrive fitted, this working on both 3rd and 4th gear gives a wonderful six effective speeds. A small electric switch gives instant shifts while the foot is held on the throttle. There is no time lag as on the American Borg-Warner unit. Seldom if ever, are mechanical difficulties encountered with the overdrive, and the Healey should be purchased with this unit. A sturdy car with a good frame, a rather heavy engine and drive train brings the A.H. 3000 up to 2500 lbs. You can expect good economy locally, better than last year, as A.H. has dropped the 3-carburetor manifold and gone back to two S.U. carbs of slightly smaller size. Power and response over the whole range is equal or better than last year and economy, of course, is improved. The racing owner can still buy his 3-carbs, the competition springs and shocks etc., should he want them. By most sports car standards the Healey is a powerhouse, losing its deep throaty roar through twin exhausts and a dual outlet muffler. The Healey sound is one of the sweetest sounds on the open road!

Delivery price, here in Monterey, is about $3700 and some of the best mechanics hereabouts work at British Motors where the cars are sold. Jack Flaherty is the dealer, and he is a most interesting fellow himself. He races, flies, golfs, and is partner with Mr. Kjell Qvale in selling the B.M.C. line in Monterey. British Motors in San Francisco import the Austin, Morris, M.G., Sprite, Jaguar and Rolls-Bentley. All but Jaguar, Rolls and Bentley are part of the huge English British Motor Co. Lord Nuffield merged his Morris Garages, Morris and the huge Austin Co. in the mid-1950s to become a sprawling giant among foreign car companies. Young Kjell Qvale began importing M.G. TDs into the Bay Area way back in 1946, continued to become a dealer and to expend quickly into several dealerships and the huge

BMC Distributorship on Van Ness Avenue across from the Jack Tar Hotel.

There, in the big multi-storied building, your Austin-Healey is serviced and sent down to you. There, also, is the famous Competition Department headed by Joe Huffaker, where the BMC racing Formula Jrs. and Genie Sports Racing Cars are born. A small select group of Antique and Classic foreign cars is carefully maintained under Mr. Qvale's personal supervision. In 1959 Jack Flaherty became administrative assistant to Mr. Qvale having been with the San Jose and Burlingame dealerships since 1952. It is only natural then, that when the opportunity came to purchase the Monterey dealership in 1960 Qvale and Flaherty became partners, and moved here to operate the store.

Handling the selling of the Austin Healey and the others is Bob Baird of Carmel. Bob you should know, for he opened the Foreign Car Center in Carmel at the corner of Fourth and Mission, later had his Sports Car World radio program locally, and does the Laguna Seca commentary each year. Bob and his salesmen have the car, you see them! My purpose in this "road test" of the A.H. 3000 is more to fill you in on locally important items which fit you in with the car here on the Peninsula. Any current magazine will give you a road test showing all the mechanical data, seconds required to do this and that, plus all the dislikes of the particular tester. Obviously, if the car was ideal everyone would be driving it. It is not meant to please everyone. It will please anyone who likes a good car, well built, properly sold and serviced and it will hold its value comparable to any American car. If you have just a bit of love for the sound of a good healthy engine, the feel of good road holding, the feel of a positive, solid gear shift in your hand and a bit of wind about your hair, you will like the '63 Austin Healey.

SOUND POST

BY JACK BENSON

People go to concerts for various reasons, ranging from the desire to be entertained, simply, to a demand for some sort of edification. When an organization like the Classic Guitar Society of Carmel presents a concert one may assume its reasons are exalted, as its members include all manner of serious devotees of the guitar and its literature. I think it would be fitting, therefore, to discuss a point that has bothered me for some time; a point having to do with musical style and the guitar.

Unless one is so enamored with the guitar that anything goes, there is some music which I feel is stylistically unsuited to it — un-guitaristic, if you will. Renaissance and Baroque lute music, Spanish Flamenco, folk music, and music composed for the guitar from the 19th and 20th centuries all provide a wealth of literature for the player. But when a guitarist turns to music of an 18th century mode, such as Haydn or Mozart composed, suddenly the instrument and the music seems to be at odds.

The chief instrument of this period was the keyboard, whether harpsichord or piano, and the musical style was fashioned largely around it. Two hands were actively employed in producing music. Frequently the left hand was given over entirely to an "Alberti bass," a device which only hampers most guitarists. Much of the music specifically written for guitar at this time attempts to emulate what is essentially a keyboard style. And I say, why bother? I'd rather hear it on a keyboard instrument, especially when there is so much music that is the guitar's own.

Guy Horn, a classic guitarist from Los Angeles, gave a recital here last Saturday night which, in part, pointed this out. But Horn had other difficulties, too. Throughout the concert there were many times when one could have asked if he were ready to play a particular piece of music in public. This, in turn, charges the listener with making a choice. Must one sit back and make allowances for what one recognizes as technically demanding music, or has one the right to expect a reasonably finished product in which technique is subordinate? Horn forced his audience to make such a choice, and I, for one, resent this sort of predicament. I like to hear a piece of music "whole" and not be reminded here and there that the player has more work to do—at least, not to the extent where I feel uncomfortable for him. Horn often did this, and this, perhaps, is one reason his recital seemed so long.

Recently Published Books Of Poetry

Two books of poetry have been published recently and each contains the verse of poets whose work is seen frequently in the Pine Cone's poetry column. Galloping Peace, issued last month by the Golden Quill Press, presents 54 poems by Othelia Lilly. The Other Man, published by the Kept Press, contains 60 poems by George Kauffman.

Othelia Lilly's book is divided into sections entitled Galloping Peace, That Mixed Bouquet of Mortals, and As Joy Explodes A Doom. Poems in each of the divisions portray the world and people of today in modern imagery.

Mrs. Lilly employs colorful metaphors to interpret prismatic moods of the mind and nature. Each deftly cut and polished facet of her imaginative verse gleams with discernment, also sensitively reflects, without sentimentality, varied aspects of her life.

Galloping Peace is her second volume of published verse. The first was Wing Your Joy.

Mrs. Lilly is a native Californian and an alumna of the University of California where she majored in English. She spent over two years in Berlin studying the organ with the late Dr. Fritz Heitzman, and has traveled extensively in Sweden, Denmark, France, Italy, Switzerland, and Czechoslovakia.

She is a professional organist in Berkeley, also teaches high school subjects and conducts a story hour at the California School for the Blind.

In addition to The Pine Cone, Othelia Lilly's poems have appeared in the Saturday Review, The Writer, the New York Herald-Tribune and other national publications. Her work has been reprinted in several anthologies.

She is a member of the Poetry Society of America, the Ina Coolbrith Circle, the Brooklyn Poetry Circle in New York, and an honorary member of the Poets of the Pacific.

George Kauffman's poetry in The Other Man is like a dash of icy water on a drowsy mind. It awakens awareness by means of strong images in various poetic forms, also in word formations that are not poetry at all. But he is never dull, whether discoursing on politics in beatnik language, the loneliness of defeated man, love, capital punishment, or cats. His poetry is not for the squeamish or those who wish to escape into a dream world: It pulses with reality—but, unfortunately, the beat is uneven.

However, Mr. Kauffman acknowledges his faults, and in the last stanza of the last poem in his book apologizes as follows:

"Image is a fragile thing that shatters in the moment.
So think as you will if you will and in my errors remember me."
—Marjory Lloyd

Letters . . .

PT. LOBOS ADMISSIONS

Dear Sir:

I am in strong agreement with Mr. D. Crane Taylor's letter in the 8 November issue of your paper.

For many years I have been advocating a "season ticket" plan for State Park admissions. This could be in the form of a given number of tickets for a given year, or a yearly "pass."

Such could apply to any single State Park, or could be applicable to all State Parks in which admission is charged.

I do not know what legal or financial problems might arise from a plan of this kind, but I most strongly urge a careful study be made of the idea. At least, a season ticket or annual pass to Point Lobos would be a boon to local people who like to take guests frequently to this beautiful place. However, the sale of season tickets or annual passes should not be limited to local residents, as the Point Lobos Reserve belongs to all citizens of the State—and to the Nation as well, in the sense that it certainly is an important part of our great natural heritage.

I sincerely hope this matter will be given careful attention by the State Park authorities. I am sending a copy to the Chief, Division of Beaches and Parks, Sacramento, and to the Sierra Club, San Francisco.

Very truly yours,
Ansel Adams.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Mr. D. Crane Taylor's interesting proposal appeared in last week's Pine Cone. Unfortunately, we incorrectly stated the principal suggestion of Mr. Taylor. He proposes that the admission books contain fifty tickets for $10, or twenty tickets for $5, good for admission to any state park.

IMPOLITIC

Dear Sir:

I was surprised and disappointed to find OUR PINE CONE had become partisan. I suppose you did a pretty fair job in your short biographies of the candidates, but why should I read them when you had already advertised your bias—Your marked ballot!

Yours sincerely,
Leonard Carpenter.

ELECTION ISSUE

Dear Sir:

Congratulations on your excellent Special Election Edition. You did a lot of work on that, and it was surely a great assistance to your readers. Even for those who did not agree with you one hundred per cent, the analysis was valuable.

Sincerely yours,
(Mrs.) Glenn Clairmonte.

HALLOWE'EN SURPRISE

Dear Sir:

This was our first Hallowe'en in Carmel, after having lived for 15 years in Montreal, Canada. We have lived in or visited many states in the U.S. and provinces of Canada. We have never been so deeply moved and impressed as we were when, during "trick or treat" ceremonies at our door, some masked, costumed and unidentified youngsters appeared at our door, and after thanking us for our hand-out, presented US each with a chocolate bar.

This was certainly a new experience!

Carmel is a wonderful place in which to live—in more ways than one.

Sincerely,
Ruth and Roland Patitz,
The Carmel Toy Shop.

CUBAN BLOCKADE

Dear Sir:

The blockade of Cuba, together with our threats toward the Soviet Union, places the lives and fate of all Americans at the mercy of a man and a nation whom many of us choose to regard as brutal and sub-human, while at the same time we place that man and regime under extreme provocation to commit the act of total destruction, self and otherwise.

We as citizens may insist that there is a better way to defend liberty and to defeat communism than the course the President has decided for us. We may be forced by the destruction carried in our President's words to express our right to live, with honor, with dignity, with generosity, with respect for others, without pride, without arrogance, and at peace.

Sincerely yours,
Lobby for Peace,
Robert Schutz,
345 Franklin Street,
San Francisco.

JUNIOR HIGH PARENTS

Tuesday at 7:45 p.m. is the day and time for the next meeting of the new Carmel Junior High Parents' Club.

A great deal of interest in the language department of the school has been expressed by the parents. The program will consist of demonstrations by members of the faculty in the use of the new audio-lingual method of foreign language instruction.

The executive board of the group was elected at the October meeting. They are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bell, president; Mr. and Mrs. George Yates, vice president; Dr. and Mrs. James Sinclair, recording secretary; Mr. and Mrs. K. H. Holbrook, corresponding secretary; Dr. and Mrs. Boyd Huff, treasurer. This meeting will be held in the student activity room on the east side of the campus, and all those interested are invited to attend. There will be people on hand to sign up new members; the dues are one dollar per family for the school year.

CARMEL WOMAN'S CLUB

Colored slides of national parks and monuments in the Southwest will be shown by Mrs. Raymond Mapstead at the Carmel Woman's Club on Monday. Mrs. Myrtle Stoddard of the book section will present the program. The pictures include scenes of Bryce, Zion, the Arches, Capitol Reef, and Canyon De Chelly. They were all taken in October, an ideal time of year for atmospheric photography conditions, which, combined with the spectacular scenery, insures good pictures.

Those pouring tea will be Mrs. Bruce Bacon, Mrs. Clifton H. Beckwith, Mrs. Raymond G. Conan, and Mrs. Harold Cohon.

HIGH TWELVE

Carmel High Twelve Club will hold its regular meeting tomorrow noon at the Carmel Masonic Temple. James Hyde, past international president of High Twelve clubs and also past grand master of the State of Kentucky, will speak on a tape recording.

All master Masons and sojourners are invited to attend.

CAMERA CLUB

Amateur photographers on the Monterey Peninsula who are interested in learning more about photography are invited to attend the first meeting this season of the Padre Trails Camera Club at 8 o'clock tonight in the Carmel High School cafeteria.

Henry E. Gilpin, president, has announced that the club is activating a new program of instruction to help beginners. Jean Cote, chairman of club contests, will be in charge of the program.

Other new officers of the club are Phillip B. Smith, vice president; Mrs. Esther Basye, secretary; Philip C. Brown, treasurer. Other committee chairmen include Dr. Willis Basye, program chairman; Mrs. Virginia R. Smith and Miss Barbara Gurley.

L'ALLIANCE FRANCAISE

Members of the Monterey Peninsula L'Alliance Francaise will meet this evening at 8:30 at the Palace, near the Steinbeck Theatre on Cannery Row. Raymond Surdez, "a one-man theatre," will present a program of whimsical numbers portraying different characters. There will be group singing, too. Mrs. Jerome Carlson, president, announces the following additions to the entertainment committee: Mrs. Leonard Klene, Mrs. Paco Ferro, Mrs. Miranda Jones, and Mrs. Claude Courteol.

READMISSION TO SAN JOSE STATE

Applications for readmission of former San Jose State College students, not in attendance at present, are now being accepted for the spring semester.

The deadline for undergraduate applications is 1 January, 1963, and graduate applications is 10 January, 1963, but the Admissions Office requests that students apply as soon as possible.

Readmission applications are available in Room 102 of the SJSC Administration Building between the hours of 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. Applications will be mailed to prospective students who request them by telephone or letter.

KIWANIS

At last Thursday's luncheon meeting of the Kiwanis Club, Miss Alta Samuelson, instructor in the Frank Laubach literacy program, spoke on the enormous strides that have been made in this "each one teach one" method, which is used in over 100 countries, with 400 volunteer teachers in Mexico alone. Miss Samuelson's adult education office is in Mexico City.

CARMEL CRAFTS GUILD

At last Friday's meeting of the Carmel Crafts Guild, the following officers for 1963 were announced: Geza Saint Galy, president; Howell Armor and Roscoe Russell, vice presidents; Carolyn White, recording secretary; Jane Bartram, corresponding secretary; Virginia Jax-

son, treasurer; Blanche Tolmie, Adaline Simank, and Skye, board members.

RESOLUTION NO. 2050

RESOLUTION GIVING NOTICE OF PROPOSED ANNEXATION TO THE CITY OF CARMEL-BY-SEA OF UNINHABITED TERRITORY DESCRIBED HEREIN AND DESIGNATED "HATTON FIELDS A," AND GIVING NOTICE OF TIME AND PLACE FOR HEARING OF PROTESTS THERETO

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CARMEL-BY-SEA:

1. That, pursuant to the provisions of the Annexation of Uninhabited Territory Act of 1939, a petition signed by owners of all of the land in the hereinafter described territory, by area and by assessed value as shown on the last equalized assessment roll of the County of Monterey, was filed with the Council of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea on 27 September, 1962, requesting annexation of the hereinafter described territory to said City.

2. That the territory which the petitioners request be annexed to the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea and which said City and its Council propose to consider annexing, is situated in the County of Monterey, State of California, hereby designated "HATTON FIELDS A," and described as follows:

Certain real property situate in the Rancho Canada de la Segunda in the County of Monterey, State of California, being all of Lots 1 and 2 in Block 20 as said lots and block are shown on map entitled "Hatton Fields, Tract No. 2" filed April 5, 1926 in Volume 3 of Cities and Towns at Page 32, records of said county, said lots being particularly described as follows:

Beginning in the easterly corporate limits line of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea at the most northerly corner of said Lot 1 and running thence along the line common to said Lot 1 and said City

(1) S. 6° 58' W., 165.64 feet to the most westerly corner of said Lot 1; thence leave said common line and running along the southwesterly boundary of said Lot 1 to and along the southwesterly boundary of said Lot 2

(2) S. 58° 20' E., 127.68 feet; thence

(3) S. 51° 25' E., 27.21 feet to the most southerly corner of said Lot 2; thence along the southwesterly boundary thereof

(4) N. 42° 39' E., 108.28 feet to the most easterly corner of said Lot 2 in the southwesterly line of Valley Way (a county road 60 feet wide); thence along the line common to said county road and said Lots 2 and 1

(5) N. 47° 21' W., 249.1 feet to the place of beginning.

Containing an area of 24,802 square feet of land.

Courses all true.

3. That the County Boundary Commission of Monterey County, California, did in session duly assembled on the 24th day of September, 1962, consider the proposed annexation boundaries of said "HATTON FIELDS A," as above described, and as submitted to said Commission by the proponents of said proposed annexation.

4. That 9 January, 1963, at the hour of 8:00 p.m., in the Council Chambers in the City Hall in the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea, County of Monterey, California, is hereby fixed as the time and place when and where any person owning real property within the uninhabited territory above described and proposed to be annexed to the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea, and having any objections to the proposed annexation, may appear before the Council of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea and show cause why such uninhabited territory should not be so annexed to the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea. The protest must be in writing, may be filed at any time before the hour set for hearing objections to the proposed annexation, and shall state the name or names of the owner or owners of property affected and the description and area of such property, in general terms.

5. The City Clerk of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea is hereby authorized and directed to cause a copy of this resolution to be published at least twice, but not oftener than once a week, in the newspaper of general circulation published in said city, being the city to which it is proposed to annex the aforesaid territory.

6. The City Clerk is directed to

Streamlined Power System Outlined

A partial underground electric system for new residential subdivisions has been developed by the P. G. & E. Co.

The new electric service still requires authorization by the California Public Utilities Commission before it can be made available in P. G. & E.'s service area in Northern and Central California. It uses trim, tapered steel standards without crossarms or guy wires. No wires are above ground from the poles to residences.

Specially designed distribution transformers are placed atop the steel standards, which also carry street lights, and the 12,000-volt electricity is carried on two overhead wires between the poles. At the pole tops, the voltage is transformed to household levels and the low-voltage wires then go down inside the standards and underground to the houses.

The system is more expensive than conventional overhead wiring and wood poles, although it costs less than half as much to install as complete underground service.

The difference in cost between the new system and conventional overhead wiring would be paid by the subdivider or home owner. It is undergoing trial operation in a San Mateo subdivision.

CHRISTMAS MAILING

The Carmel Business Association has joined with the Post Office in reminding merchants sending bulk mailings to separate Carmel mail from their out-of-town mail, and to remember that incoming packages are ready to be picked up by 9:30 a.m.

Shot In The Arm For Business

Through the course of the year, as bills and other indebtedness pick away at income, thrift savings, such as the Christmas Clubs operated by the banks, sometimes seem a luxury with Christmas as far away as it is in May, for instance. But when November arrives and the local banks begin to mail out the checks to savings club members, business can get a terrific shot in the arm as this money flows, almost immediately, into the local market.

Bank of America's August H. Johnson, local manager, announced today that his bank was mailing checks amounting to $30,488. Crocker - Anglo's Don Lyons said the amount mailed from his branch would be $53,000. Wells Fargo, said Fred Duhring, was mailing $60,000.

Altogether, in ready cash, $143,488 deliberately saved for the Christmas attack on the stores, has gone into circulation.

Stock Market Analysis

By John D. Gates
GIFTS

A gift of securities or other assets from one individual to another individual must be reported for gift tax purposes by the person making the gift, if the amount exceeds certain limits.

These amounts, or limits, are not hard to bear in mind, if the idea behind them is understood.

There are two figures involved: $30,000 and $3,000. The first figure, $30,000, is a lifetime exemption on the amount that any one individual can give away, after which he becomes subject to the gift tax rates. This limit is imposed to prevent a taxpayer divesting himself of all of his property to his prospective heirs and thereby avoiding an eventual estate tax.

The other figure, $3,000, is the annual exclusion. This means that any gift of $3,000, or less, within the year, is not considered a gift for tax purposes. The government has to start somewhere in defining what is a gift for tax purposes, and this figure of $3,000 is the dividing line. To put it practically, the government is not interested in keeping track of every little Christmas gift, no matter how much they may be in the aggregate, as long as the gift, or gifts, to any one individual during the year, do not exceed $3,000. As soon as he gives more than $3,000 to one person, he must report it by filing a gift tax return. Then, any excess over the $3,000 is applied first against his lifetime exemption of $30,000, and beyond that the tax is effective.

The distinction between the two figures, and the point to remember, is that the person making the gift has only one $30,000 lifetime exemption to be spread over all of the recipients, whereas he has an unlimited number of the $3,000 annual exclusions which can be applied to an unlimited number of recipients and repeated every year.

It should be noted that a husband and wife can give double these figures, or $60,000 and $6,000, if the gifts are treated as being one-half from each of them.

This discussion has nothing to do with income taxes or with charitable gifts, that is, gifts to religious or charitable organizations, which come under different rules.

Electric Costs In Carmel Reported

Residents of Carmel are using electricity to a greater extent than ever before, indicating a rising standard of living locally.

The two go hand-in-hand, according to economists, who regard the per capita use of electricity as one of the best indexes of a community's standard of living.

The facts and figures on consumption and on rates are contained in reports made by the Federal Power Commission and by the Edison Electric Institute.

A basis of comparison is provided by the FPC, which presents typical electric bills in effect in 5,649 cities, as of 1 January, 1962. They vary widely, in accordance with local production costs.

In Carmel, says the FPC, the cost of 100 kilowatt hours, which is the amount sufficient for small lighting and appliance needs, was $4.32 per month. Among the other cities, that quantity cost $4.06 a month.

For 250 kilowatt hours, which covers lighting, cooking, refrigeration and small appliances, local residents paid $7.50 per month. The average in the other communities was $7.48.

For the households in Carmel that consumed 500 kilowatt hours a month, the bills amounted to $10.70. In the rest of the United States they averaged $10.66.

WHAT'S DOING

A cook's best friend is her kitchen telephone. That's the word we've heard from many a housewife here in town. And it makes a lot of sense. If the kitchen's the place she spends most of her time, then that's the most convenient place for her to make and take calls.

Many women like a wall phone for their kitchen extension; it hangs up handily, keeps work surfaces clear. Or you might prefer a regular desk set or the smaller Princess.

ORDER YOURS TODAY

Call The Monterey Business Office: 375-4101.

These are two "voiceprints"—picture patterns, made by a special machine, of two different people saying the word, "you." It's a new idea that holds a lot of promise in the field of identification.

Bell Telephone Laboratories scientists have found that voiceprints, like fingerprints, are so distinctly individual that experts can recognize one from millions of others. Even if the speakers yell, whisper, try an accent or fill their mouths with marbles, the patterns remain essentially the same.

Seems like there's no end of ideas in communications research—from making a picture of your voice to sending pictures around the world by satellite.

"The Good Old Days."

When someone says that, he's usually referring to the good old prices—the free lunch, penny candy, nickel cigars, shave-and-a-haircut six bits. You might think you'd have to go a long way to find anything that costs less today than it did in the good old days.

Yet back in 1915 a coast-to-coast phone call cost over $20.00. Today the same call costs just $2.25. So why not enjoy long distance telephone visits more often? Now would be a good time to start.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE THANKSGIVING DAY SERVICE

A special Thanksgiving Day service, traditional in Christian Science churches all over the world, will be held in this area by First Church of Christ, Scientist, Monte Verde near Sixth Avenue, at 11:00 a.m. Everyone is welcome and no collection will be taken.

Hymns, prayer, and a specially prepared Bible Lesson-Sermon are all a part of the service, with a period set aside for spontaneous expressions of gratitude by church members in the congregation.

Included in the Responsive Reading will be these Bible verses from I Chronicles: "Now therefore, our God, we thank thee, and praise thy glorious name . . . O Lord our God, all this store that we have prepared to build thee an house for thine holy name cometh of thine hand, and is all thine own."

From Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy will be read: "If we feel the aspiration, humility, gratitude, and love which our words express,—this God accepts; . . ." (p. 8).

Thanksgiving Proclamations by the President and/or the Governor will be read as part of the service by the First Reader.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERMON

Spiritual healing will be a topic dealt with at Christian Science services Sunday in a Lesson-Sermon on the subject "Mortals and Immortals."

Scriptural selections will include this verse from Matthew: "And when he had called unto him his twelve disciples, he gave them power against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease."

One of the correlative citations to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy states:

"Every day makes its demands upon us for higher proofs rather than professions of Christian power. These proofs consist solely in the destruction of sin, sickness, and death by the power of Spirit, as Jesus destroyed them. This is an element of progress, and progress is the law of God, whose law demands of us only what we can certainly fulfill" (p. 233).

RESOLUTION

BE IT RESOLVED that the many contributions of John S. Chitwood as a member of the Adult Board of Directors of the Carmel Youth Center will long be remembered. The unwaivering faith of John S. Chitwood in the youth of Carmel and his unending efforts on their behalf are, and will remain, of the utmost value to the Carmel Youth Center and to the entire community. As a member of this Board from its inception, he worked tirelessly and wisely to build a foundation on which the Carmel Youth Center shall stand for future generations. Although the loss of John S. Chitwood is deeply felt by his associates on this Board, his ideals for the youth of Carmel and for the future of the Carmel Youth Center will serve as a guide for this and all succeeding Boards of Directors.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a true and exact copy of this Resolution be presented to the family of John S. Chitwood.
J. C. Buffington, Jr.,
President,
Adult Board of Directors
Attest:
Karen Hicks,
Secretary,
Adult Board of Directors.

Brenda Buerger Engaged

From Paris, which Dr. and Mrs. Newton W. Buerger are visiting, comes the announcement of the engagement of their daughter, Brenda, and Lieutenant William Sheridan Agee of Bucks County, Pennsylvania.

The couple plan to be married Saturday, 15 December, in Honolulu, Hawaii.

Brenda, a 1948 graduate of Carmel High School, attended Colorado Women's College in Denver. She is the sister of Lieutenant Newton W. Buerger, Jr., USN, of Oak Harbor, Washington; the granddaughter of Mrs. Samuel T. Brattin of Everett, Massachusetts, and Mrs. Julie Buerger of Deerfield Beach, Florida; and the niece of Dr. Martin J. Buerger of Lincoln, Massachusetts, and John A. Smith of Denver, Colorado.

Her fiancé, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Rochelle Sheridan Agee, is a graduate of Muhlenberg College, Allentown, Pennsylvania, with B.A. and B.S. degrees. He is currently stationed with the United States Navy in Honolulu, where Brenda also makes her home. She is associated with Kentron Hawaii, Ltd.

The bride's parents make their home in Pebble Beach, but Dr. Buerger is on a sabbatical leave from the Naval Postgraduate School in Monterey, and the Buergers are spending the year traveling in Europe.

Will See Opera In Los Angeles

Mrs. Russell Williams, with her youngest daughter, Molly, drove to Los Angeles last week to spend two weeks at the home of her oldest daughter and son-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Ben Chaffey. Mrs. Williams was looking forward to attending three performances of the San Francisco Opera Company while she is south—Der Rosenkavalier, Otello, and Don Giovanni.

Easterners Make Home Here

Newlyweds from the East who have a family connection with Carmel, are making their first home on the Peninsula. The former Joan Ames and John Woodcock were married 20 October at the Long Island home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arnyas Ames. A week after their wedding, the young couple flew to Monterey, where John began Russian studies at the Army Language School. They are making their home in Pacific Grove.

Joan's mother is a cousin of Mrs. Yvonne Winslow of Berkeley, a former Carmel resident and frequent visitor here; and two former Carmelites, Faith and Stephen Morrow (who as small children lived with their parents in Carmel Valley during the early 1940's) were in the wedding party.

Autumn Babies

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Steiny of Carmel became the parents of a daughter, Dianna, on 24 October.

A daughter, Katherine Diane, was born to Mr. and Mrs. David J. Leonard of Carmel on 28 October.

The birthday of Morgan Scott was 28 October. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore P. Reed of the Coast Route, Big Sur.

Two Halloween babies were Cynthia Louise, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Bottero of Carmel; and Apollon Eric, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marcel E. Sedletzky of Carmel Hills.

Mr. and Mrs. Donnie B. Alexander of Carmel had a daughter, Betsy Lou, on 1 November.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee B. McGuckin of Carmel have named their son Jarrett Lee. He was born 4 November.

All these newcomers made their appearance at the Community Hospital.

Son For Philip O'Sheas

Former Carmelite Mrs. Martha Minshall, now living in Palo Alto, was a recent Carmel visitor with plans to meet her oldest son, Pfc. Tim O'Shea, who was hoping for a brief leave from Hunter-Liggett Military Reservation.

Mrs. Minshall happily reported to the Pine Cone that she is a first-time grandmother. Her son, Airman Second Class Philip ("Flip") O'Shea, a Carmel High School graduate, and his wife, the former Carole Corni, on 11 October became the parents of a son, David Edmund O'Shea. Named after his grandfather, the late Edmund O'Shea, young David weighed five and one-half pounds.

The O'Sheas have an apartment in San Antonio, Texas, where Flip is stationed at Lachland Air Force Base. They hope to come to California on Christmas leave.

Of herself, Mrs. Minshall says that she enjoys her job as secretary to Dr. Edith Dowley, assistant professor of psychology and director of the Stanford University Nursery School. She also works part time in the department of medical micro-biology.

Mrs. Minshall's son, Mike O'Shea, a student at Foothill Junior College, is sports editor of the college paper, and is also continuing his night job on the Stanford Daily. Her youngest son, Greg, lives at home and attends school in Palo Alto.

British M. P. Visits Here

Anthony Crosland, Labor Party member of parliament from Great Britain, who is traveling in the United States, spent two busy days on the Peninsula this week. Visiting San Francisco under the auspices of the World Affairs Council, Mr. Crosland came here to see something of the coast (Senator Fred Farr drove him to Point Lobos and along Highway One on Tuesday morning), meet representatives of civic, political and educational groups, and look up old friends.

Yesterday afternoon, Mrs. John E. Dalton asked a few friends, including Mr. and Mrs. John Harrison, Bob Sherry and Larry Rose, to her home on Camino Real for cocktails to meet Mr. Crosland "and to sit quietly around the fire and talk."

A 6:30 p.m. plane yesterday took Mr. Crosland back to San Francisco to take part in the activities scheduled for London Week.

Airman Puryear Graduates

Airman Third Class Leland S. Puryear, son of Mrs. Cecile R. Weiss of Carmel, is being reassigned to Davis-Monthan AFB, Arizona, following his graduation from the United States Air Force technical training course for electricians at Tinker AFB, Oklahoma. Airman Puryear studied electricity and its applications to Air Force utility power distribution systems.

He attended Monterey Peninsula College.

A Son For The Westons

Mr. and Mrs. Cole Weston became the parents of a son, Richard, on 7 November at the Monterey Hospital. The new baby has a two-year-old sister, Erin.

Richard's grandparents are Mrs. Ruth Fagan of San Francisco, Colonel Richard Fagan, whose home is in Texas, and the late Edward Weston, Carmel Highlands photographer.

OBITUARIES

Mary Gatcombe

Mrs. Mary Chandler Gatcombe died in Stanford Hospital, Palo Alto, on 12 November following a long period of ill health. She had lived in Carmel for the past ten years. Her home was at Hatton and Mountain View roads.

Mrs. Gatcombe was born in Indianapolis, Indiana, and grew up in her native state. She attended Vassar College, also Purdue University, and graduated from the latter.

Her husband, Professor Ernest K. Gatcombe, a member of the U.S. Naval Postgraduate School faculty, survives her; also her daughter, Susanne, a student at Carmel High School; a sister, Mrs. C. Emory Glander of Columbia, Ohio; and two brothers, Robert Chandler of Phoenix, Arizona, and Gordon Chandler of Worthington, Ohio.

Chaplain Hedges Capers officiated at funeral services in the Navy School chapel on Tuesday.

Donations in memory of Mrs. Gatcombe may be made by those so desiring to the Monterey Peninsula Volunteer Services, Box 2004, Carmel.

Dr. Charles Terwilliger

Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon in All Saints' Episcopal Church for Dr. Charles Van Orden Terwilliger, chairman of the electrical engineering department at the U.S. Naval Postgraduate School and a Carmel resident for the past 11 years. The Reverend David Hill, rector, officiated. Honorary pallbearers were J. M. Bouldry, J. S. Demetry, R. C. Dorf, E. M. Gardner, R. K. Houston, J. Murray, O. H. Polk, C. H. Rothauge, G. J. Thaler, Dean A. E. Vivell, J. R. Ward, M. L. Wilcox and R. B. Yarbrough. Active pallbearers were F. Boudreaux, A. Gerba, H. L. Myers, C. B. Oler, W. C. Smith, Jr., and R. D. Strum.

Professor Terwilliger died on 12 November in a local hospital following a short illness.

Born on 14 May in Albany, New York, 68 years ago, Professor Terwilliger was descended from early Dutch settlers of importance on Manhattan Island. His parents were Charles Robert and Grace Ten Broeck Terwilliger.

Union College granted him a bachelor's degree in engineering in 1916 and a master's degree in 1919. Three years later he received a master's degree from Harvard University and, in 1938, a doctorate in engineering from John Hopkins University.

Professor Terwilliger began his distinguished academic career as an instructor in mathematics at Union College. He was a member of the General Electric Company's engineering test department in Schenectady, also an assistant in the company's laboratory for three summers, while at Union College.

Next he was an electrical engineering instructor at Harvard University from 1922-24, then spent two years as an assistant professor at Ohio State University.

Dr. Terwilliger joined the faculty of the U.S. Naval Postgraduate School as an assistant professor in 1925, and advanced to a full professorship before becoming chairman of his department in 1929. After the school moved from Annapolis, Maryland, to Monterey in 1952, Professor Terwilliger established a home on Shafter Way.

He served, 1926-40, as a lieutenant commander in the United States Naval Reserve. His marriage to the former Susan Gray took place on 13 July, 1927.

Professor Terwilliger was a fellow of the American Institute of Electrical Engineering and the American Association for the Advancement of Science, also a member of the Holland Society of New York, the American Association of University Professors, Sigma Xi, the Carmel Associated Sportsmen and the Dutch Reformed Church.

Besides his wife in Carmel, he is survived by his mother who lives in Loudonville, New York; a stepson, Commander Robert Gray Bagby (USN); a sister, Mrs. John Hamm of Loudonville; and a brother, Frank R. Terwilliger of Sarasota, Florida.

Burial took place in Cementerio El Encinal. Friends wishing to honor the memory of Professor Terwilliger may do so in the form of donations to charity.

Paul Mortuary was in charge of funeral arrangements.

Jessica Thies

Mrs. Jessica Rebecca Thies, mother of Captain William Thies (USN Ret.) of Carmel, died 11 November in a local hospital after a short illness. Her home was at Santa Fe Street and Sixth Avenue.

Mrs. Thies was born 9 June, 1891, in Horntown, Virginia. Her husband, William H. Thies, died in 1942. Before moving to Carmel four years ago, Mrs. Thies lived in Foley, Alabama.

In addition to her son, she is survived by a sister, Mrs. W. A. Evans of Tucson, Arizona; and two granddaughters, Layton and Lola Thies of Carmel.

Funeral services were held Tuesday in the Little Chapel-by-the-Sea, followed by inurnment in El Carmelo Cemetery.

Friends wishing to honor the memory of Mrs. Thies may do so in the form of donations to the Clifford Lee Cancer Fund of Carmel Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, Box 792, Carmel.

Paul Mortuary was in charge of arrangements.

Elizabeth Johnston

Mrs. Elizabeth I. Johnston, mother of Joseph J. (Pete) Johnston of Carmel, died on 8 November in her home in Pebble Beach. She had been ill for a long time.

Mrs. Johnston was born 3 December, 1898, in Greenfield, Indiana. She was the widow of Colonel Joseph J. Johnston and had lived on the Peninsula for 14 years.

At the age of 43, Mrs. Johnston enlisted in the Women's Army Corps as a private and was a captain at the time of her discharge. She was an active member of the Carmel American Legion, Post 512, also belonged to Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority and was a charter member of the Junior League of Akron, Ohio.

In addition to her son, she leaves two granddaughters in Carmel, Marie-Lise and Carole Johnston, and a third, Candace Johnston of Akron.

Private funeral services were held Monday in the Little Chapel-by-the-Sea. The Reverend David Hill of All Saints' Episcopal

Wendy Draper To Wed

Wendy Draper will marry Clifford Michael Ograin of Honolulu on 22 December at St. Peter's Church on the Kona Coast of Hawaii. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Draper of Carmel, announced their daughter's engagement on their own 24th wedding anniversary, 16 October, while they were visiting the Islands on a month's vacation.

Wendy's family goes back over 100 years in Carmel history. Her great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Martin, were early settlers here, and their home was the present Mission Ranch. Her grandmother, the late Mrs. Robert G. Leidig, was the Martins' only daughter. Mr. Leidig, of Carmel, and Jess Draper, of Palo Colorado, are her grandfathers.

A graduate of Carmel High School who attended the University of California, Wendy has been working in Honolulu. Her sister, Susan, attends Santa Catalina School, and her brother, Michael, attends the University of Arizona.

Her fiancé, the son of Mrs. Leon Cooley of Palos Verdes and Clifford Ograin of Rolling Hills, attended the University of Southern California and is a graduate of the University of Hawaii. At present he is taking an executive training course with the Shell Oil Company in Honolulu.

After their December wedding, the young couple will fly to California to spend Christmas with Wendy's family in Carmel, and New Year's, with Clifford's parents. They will make their home in Honolulu.

Church officiated. Inurnment was in El Carmelo Cemetery.

Persons wishing to honor the memory of Mrs. Johnston may do so in the form of donations to the Monterey County Heart Association, Box 1329, Monterey.

Paul Mortuary was in charge of arrangements.

William E. Gagen, Sr.

Word was received this week of the death of William E. Gagen, Sr., on Monday night from a coronary thrombosis. He and his wife, the former Madeline Curry, who taught music and art in the 1930's at Sunset School, lived in Sonoma where Mr. Gagen was district manager for the Pacific Telephone Company. Besides his wife, he leaves a son, William E. Gagen, Jr., a student at Georgetown University in Washington, D.C.

Funeral services were held today in St. Patrick's Church in Sonoma, and were to be followed by burial in Mount Olivet Cemetery, San Rafael.

James Ralph Zuck

James Ralph Zuck, 86, an accountant who lived in Carmel for over 25 years before he went to live at the Masonic Home in Union City six years ago, died 11 November in the home. He was the oldest living graduate of the College of the Pacific in Stockton and had attended a reunion there two days before his death.

Mr. Zuck was born in Gilroy on 1 October, 1876. He was a member of the Carmel Masonic Lodge and the Carmel Chapter of the Eastern Star.

Survivors are a nephew, George Abbott of Carmel, also a niece in San Francisco and another in San Jose.

Carmel Lodge No. 680, F. & A. M. conducted funeral services for Mr. Zuck in Hayward.

Wisharts Home From Tahoe

Since their retirement from business (as former owners of Wishart's Bakery), Mr. and Mrs. George Wishart have had leisure to enjoy their summer cottage at Lake Forest, north of Tahoe City. Just last week they returned to their San Carlos Street home after a long summer there and also a taste of winter, with two and one half inches of snow at the time of the big coastal storm.

Mrs. Vaughn Hill (Emma Ann Wishart) of Sleepy Hollow, Margaret Wishart of San Francisco, George Wishart of Arcadia, and Bill Wishart of Roseville all visited their parents at Tahoe during the summer, as did numerous Wishart grandchildren.

SYMPHONY WILL BE ON TV

Through the courtesy of Local 616 of the Musicians' Union, the Monterey County Symphony will appear on a televised program Monday evening from 7 to 8 on Channel 8, KSBW-TV. In this live performance, Conductor John Gosling will rehearse the orchestra in selections from the next concert of the season, and the musicians will also play excerpts from the last concert.

CARMEL KEEPS SHOE — TAKES CHAMPIONSHIP

The Carmel High School Padres finished a nearly perfect football season last Saturday by beating the Pacific Grove Breakers by a score of 19-13. The Junior Varsity also claimed a championship following their victory over the PG JV's, 24-6. Here is the scoring for the JV game, which was played at noon. At the end of the first quarter, PG led Carmel 6-0. Carmel's first scoring opportunity came in the second quarter, and it was John Tolan who seized the chance. Al Nishimura successfully passed to Tolan over the goal-line, for a 6-yard touchdown. Ralph Juarez kicked the extra point, but it was nullified by a penalty. The second try was unsuccessful. With the score tied at 6 points apiece, Jay Lang ran 2 yards for a TD. Again the conversion failed, and at the end of the first half Carmel was one touchdown ahead of Pacific Grove, 12-6. In the third quarter, Carmel received the kickoff and Ralph Juarez scored a touchdown on the first down. He ran 44 yards from scrimmage, but failed to make the extra point. The fourth and final touchdown came in the third quarter when Juarez again ran around the left end, this time for 21 yards. The final score remained 24-6. The Junior Varsity has been undefeated this season, outscoring their opponents 203 to 38.

One person who, in a sense, is more important than any other on the JV team is Coach Jason Harbert. This is Coach Harbert's first year at Carmel High. He accepted the position of JV coach in place of Buzz Rainer, who steered the team on to victory last year.

The one remarkable trait of last week's Varsity game was the valor with which the two teams attacked each other. So furious was the playing, in fact, that in the first five downs here were four penalties. There was no lack of penalties throughout the remainder of the game. In the first quarter there was remarkably successful running for the Pacific Grove backfield. It was finally discovered that Terrence Tweedie was an effective blockade. However, PG was able to score on a run around the right end, and at the end of the first quarter they led Carmel 7-0. Danny Holman completed a pass to Jim Kelley, who went for 30 yards before he was stopped. Phil Zobel, who injured his ankle last week, made two sharp gains, one an 11-yard run and the other a 9-yarder. The second quarter saw the defense much more organized. Bart Whelan deflected a fourth-down punt, and from there Dennis Hermanson and Phil Zobel advanced the ball 20 yards.

Then Danny Holman was thrown for several losses, and PG gained the ball. Good running and a successful pitch-out sent them into Carmel territory, but the Carmel defense held, and Pacific Grove was unable to score.

A Holman to Thomas pass advanced the ball 20 yards, and from there Danny was able to pass to Al Tegtmeier, who ran for a touchdown. This play started from Carmel's own 39-yard line, thus racking up a 61-yard TD. The point after try was successful, and the half-time score was 7-7.

The good weather held for the third quarter, and although it became chillier, the sun reflected off the symbolic shoe. Speaking of shoes, John Whittaker lost one, and he had to borrow one from Mike Beardsley so that he could remain in the game. Holman passed to Kelley for 15 yards, and then to Tegtmeier for 8 more. From here Danny was able to score on a keeper play. With Pollock's kicking attempt blocked, Carmel moved out in front of PG 13-7. Gary Mumford made the tackle on Grant Pollock's kickoff, and Pacific Grove was soon forced into a fourth-down kicking situation. This they did. The ball went through the arms of waiting Gary Mumford, and into those of Phil Zobel. Zobel handed off to someone in back of him who promptly fumbled the ball. At any rate, we were ahead of PG 13-7 at the end of the third quarter.

During the fourth quarter the offense maneuvered beautifully; Holman handed off to Hermanson, who ran 24 yards. Holman again ran the ball himself, this time for a first down, and the offensive line was blocking well. John Thomas made an exceptionally fine tackle, and Jim Kelley and Dave Harris together, tackled well.

Dennis Clark is the finest low tackler on the team, and he needs to be, for he weighs only 135 pounds. With three minutes and 45 seconds left in the season, PG scored on a short run around left end. Carmel held them at six points, and the score was tied at 13-13. On the kick-off, Gary Mumford ran the ball up to the halfway mark of the field. Zobel advanced the ball another 20 yards, and through short runs and first downs Carmel was in scoring position. The game-winning TD was made by Thomas, who ran for 8 yards. Pollock's conversion kick bounced off the cross arm, and Carmel left the game with a six-point lead, 19-13.

Adventure Ahead For Benedicts

The discomfort of typhoid, cholera and yellow fever shots will be happily disregarded by the Howard Benedicts, who will soon leave Carmel for at least two years in Africa.

Howard has signed a two-year contract to teach at the Oru Community Vocational High School in East Nigeria. This came about because the founder of the school (which has been in operation since 1957), Dr. Ben Uzoukwu Nzeribe, was on a scholarship at Chico State College, 1953-54, and worked for Dr. H. C. Benedict, Howard's father and a chemistry professor on the Chico faculty. Dr. Benedict and his wife kept in touch with Dr. Nzeribe and his plans for starting a school in his native community.

Howard will be head of the technical department of the school for the coming school year, beginning 15 January; a teaching credential plus his experience as a general contractor should prove to be just the right background for this position. The whole family, including Tina, 13, Christ, 11, Peter, eight, and four-year-old Charlie, is excited at the prospect of flying to New York in mid-December, then embarking on a Norwegian freighter for Nigeria and the beginning of their new life.

FIGURE CONTROL CLASSES

Figure control classes for women are being offered for all Peninsula women by the Carmel School Recreation Department on Wednesday at 10 a.m. in Room 19, River School.

Exercises and movements are designed to develop muscle tone, relax unnecessary tensions and to improve appearance. The work is based on modern dance techniques and basic body mechanics.

For further information please call Mrs. R. W. Bell, MA 4-8633, or Mrs. J. B. Wickham, MA 4-4095. The class is being taught by Mrs. Wickham who has taught a similar class for several years at the Monterey Neighborhood Center.

Editors Window

what they will be for us we cannot say. And we would perhaps not care to if we could.

The remarkable thing is, that the machinery of government has continued to move, for it has an almost unarrestable momentum, much of it provided by the men in office who were not required to stand for election this year, as well as the civil service career staffs, who sort, package and serve the product of legislation.

State Senator Fred S. Farr (D-Carmel) is, this year, such a man, with years remaining before he must once again stand for election, he has had to bend his efforts and attention to the problems of government that he knows he will face when the Legislature convenes in January.

His attention is currently being directed to the possibility of there being established an educational television station, anchored in joint venture on the campuses of the new University of California at Santa Cruz, Hartnell College, and Monterey Peninsula College. He is gazing thoughtfully at a collaborative study and some $200 million in Federal funds available to the states for planning and development.

Farr is also worried about fraudulent charitable drives. As chairman of a Senate Judiciary subcommittee, he has conducted one hearing in Los Angeles, will conduct another in San Francisco in December. He is turning up sordid evidence of what was already widely-known: that such drives are frequently more beneficent to the organizer than to the charity.

He has felt that defeated Proposition No. 4, to aid farmers by assessment privileges, was necessary; and favors a Democratic party platform plank adopting a vigorous policy to diminish what he terms "confiscatory taxation" of farm lands.

His legislative attention also turns to retraining of the jobless, a teacher exchange program with nations in Latin American, and the obtaining of a grant from the State Department of Water Resources of $3,795,000 to assist in the construction of San Antonio Dam down-county.

Farr, who campaigned energetically for Governor Brown and the Democratic ticket, has also to contemplate — probably optimistically — his whip role in the next session of the Legislature, which will unquestionably be enhanced. And, in so doing, he is exhibiting the viable combination of ingredients of which all politicians are composed: strategist, dreamer, sceptic, humanist, pragmatist, soothsayer and idealist, in pursuit of the voter and anything that will work.

THE TRIUMPH OF REASON

I know of a deaf lady in New Jersey to whom the burden of democracy was more than she could bear.

Of foreign birth and naturalized for a number of years, she could not be brought by her husband to vote her franchise, no matter how wily, or insistent he was. Finally a friend, who belonged to the League of Women Voters' tempted her to the polls through some special feminine inducement.

The inspector introduced her to an imposing voting machine, explaining its use by shouts and gestures, finally guiding the bewildered voter inside and pulling the curtain behind her.

There was a moment of silence, then a great, grinding crash of gears, flashing of lights, a screech of mechanical distress, and a determined lady marching out of the booth, out the door, and home.

She has never been back, and never will. She explains with simple and irresistible logic, that she had forgotten for whom she was told by her husband to vote, and how the inspector had told her to do it. She reasoned that, if she pulled every switch in sight she was sure to hit the right candidates somehow.

The failure of the machine to rise to this challenge or to ascend to the plateau of her reasoning, was, she believes to this day, a sign of a weakness in democracy, and until we work our way out of it, she wants no part of the process.
